Description

Do you want to expand your professional skills, energy literacy, and leadership capabilities while networking with top professionals in the Department of Energy? The Minority Educational Institution Student Partnership Program (MEISPP) provides 10-week summer internship opportunities to highly qualified undergraduate and graduate students from Minority Serving Institutions. Some opportunities may be extended into the academic year.

The MEISPP is designed to provide talented undergraduate and graduate students with internships that introduce them to a variety of entry and mid-level research, technical and professional positions within the U.S. Department of Energy \(DOE\) and its national laboratories. Interns will help support the DOE mission of discovering solutions to power and secure America's future. The DOE is committed to:

- Energy Security
- Nuclear Security
- Scientific Discovery and Innovation
- Environmental Responsibility
- Management Excellence
- Cyber Security
- Safeguards and Security
- Technological Advancement

Opportunities may be available at DOE Headquarters, DOE Field Offices, and national laboratories. For more information about DOE offices and facilities, visit <https://www.energy.gov/offices>. Opportunities are available in many areas, including:

- Science
- Technology
- Engineering
- Mathematics
- Business
- Communications
- Policy
- Law

Program Dates: June 5 - August 11, 2023

Undergraduate students: $750/week

Graduate students: $950/week

Opportunity Title: Minority Educational Institution Student Partnership Program

- Summer 2023

Opportunity Reference Code: DOE-MEISPP-2023

In-person Internships

Travel: You will be reimbursed up to $1,000 for inbound/outbound transportation expenses from your current address to the assigned location if the distance is over 50 miles. Travel arrangements and reimbursement will be based on the most direct and expeditious mode of transportation; ORISE is available to make travel arrangements and purchase plane or train tickets for participants if requested.

Housing: If you relocate more than 50 miles one-way from your current location, you will be eligible for a weekly housing supplement to offset expenses associated with housing during the internship. Supplement levels depend on the location of your internship and will vary from $340 - $777/week. This supplement will be added to your weekly stipend.

Commute: A $50/week supplement will be provided to offset the cost of commuting to and from your internship site.

Virtual Internships

Virtual interns will receive a $150/week supplement to offset the cost of remote participation. The supplement will be added to the stipend.

Optional Benefits: At their discretion, offices may offer supplements to offset the cost of health insurance, for educational and professional development support, and for travel during the internship.

Review of Applications

Applications will be evaluated by the sponsoring offices/hosting facilities to determine if there is a match between your knowledge, skills, and interests, and the projects available. Applications may be reviewed by multiple mentors at the same time. Sponsoring offices/hosting facilities may contact you for an interview prior to selection.

Nature of Appointment:

Interns will not enter into an employee/employer relationship with ORISE, ORAU, MEISPP or the hosting site. Instead, interns will be affiliated with ORISE for the administration of the appointment through the ORISE appointment letter and Terms of Appointment.

About the Office of Economic Impact and Diversity (ED):

The MEISPP program is sponsored by ED. The ED develops and executes Department-wide policies to strengthen diversity and inclusion goals affecting equal employment opportunities, small and disadvantaged businesses, minority educational institutions and historically under-represented communities.
