Description The U.S. Army Garrison-Italy is offering an internship in Program Analysis Research for a current student or recent graduate.

What will I be doing?

As an ORISE participant, you will join a community of scientists and researchers in an effort to network with stakeholders and departments within the organization to investigate and analyze program productivity.

Why should I apply?

Under the guidance of a mentor, you will engage in a variety of research activities, including:

- Learning organizational structure
- Learning industry standard software implementation
- Identifying, evaluating and synthesizing business data and other information relevant to MWR Activities
- Analyzing I-MENU sales to help improve overall effectiveness
- Evaluating improvements for complex business practices and programs across organization
- Presenting information on processes that support mission effectiveness
- Developing comprehensive assessment and evaluation criteria to systemically measure the effectiveness, efficiency and productivity of BRD programs.
- Developing detailed plans for implementing short- and long-term goals

Where will I be located? Vicenza, Italy

What is the anticipated start date?

Exact start dates will be determined at the time of selection and in coordination with the selected candidate. Applications are reviewed on an ongoing basis and internships or fellowships will be filled as qualified candidates are identified by USAG-Italy staff.

What is the appointment length?

This appointment is a twelve-month research appointment, with the possibility to be renewed for additional research periods. Appointments may be extended depending on funding availability, project assignment, program rules, and availability of the participant.

What are the appointment provisions?

You will receive a stipend to be determined by USAG-Italy. Stipends are typically based on a participant's academic standing, discipline, experience, and research facility location. Other provisions may include the following:

- Training and travel allowance
