Description The Next Generation STEM Internship Program (NGSI) affords juniors, seniors, and recent graduates from accredited high schools or home school programs the opportunity to participate in STEM or STEM-related projects with research and professional staff at Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL).

Diversity is Key

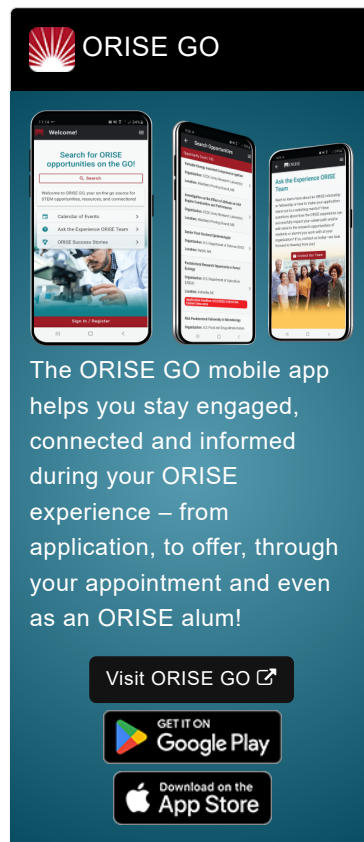

Scientific discovery is a team effort. Researchers, engineers, and technical and business professionals support achievements in science and technology by helping to manage and operate research projects and facilities. We believe the teams required to solve the nation's most pressing scientific challenges are those that combine a wide range of backgrounds and perspectives.

Next Generation STEM Internship Program (NGSI) Details

- Appointments are for 7-10 weeks during the summer.
- Participants are expected to participate full-time each week. A maximum of five days (without stipend) may be missed during the appointment period, after the first week of your appointment is completed, if necessary, for other commitments.
