Application Deadline 3/16/2026 8:00:00 AM Eastern Time Zone

Description The U.S. Department of Energy \(DOE\) Office of Intelligence and Counterintelligence \(IN\) is seeking Scholars to engage in projects and activities related to IN's mission. IN is responsible for all intelligence and counterintelligence activities throughout the DOE complex, including nearly thirty intelligence and counterintelligence offices nationwide.

IN protects vital national security information and technologies, representing intellectual property of incalculable value. IN's distinctive contribution to national security is the ability to leverage the Energy Department's unmatched scientific and technological expertise in support of policymakers as well as national security missions in defense, homeland security, cyber security, intelligence, and energy security.

The Scholar will receive training, mentoring, and additional support to effectively accomplish appointment goals. Appointments may involve projects focused on engineering, science, research, technology, policy, business, and government relations.

Stipends

The DOE Scholars Program provides stipends starting at $900 per week for undergraduate students and $950 per week for graduate students and recent graduates.

Travel

Travel reimbursement of inbound and outbound costs up to $1,000 for participants who live more than fifty miles, one-way, from the assigned hosting site.

Length of Appointment

Appointments may vary in length depending on the project assignment.

Location

Scholars may be assigned to IN's office in Washington, DC or at a IN-approved location. Appointments may be served on site or virtually depending on project assignment.
