Description The EPA National Student Services Contract has an immediate opening for a full time Government Resources Administrative Support position with the Office of Research and Development at the EPA facility in Washington, DC.

The Office of Research and Development at the EPA supports high-quality research to improve the scientific basis for decisions on national environmental issues and help EPA achieve its environmental goals. Research is conducted in a broad range of environmental areas by scientists in EPA laboratories and at universities across the country.

What the EPA project is about

The Office of Resource Management (ORM) is the premier provider of administrative services that enable and support research within the EPA's Office of Research and Development (ORD). It is composed of five divisions with responsibility for extramural programs, budget execution, travel and human resources. This opportunity is located within the Human Capital Division (HCD) office of the director. The HCD Director is a senior civilian who oversees the operation of the HCD immediate office and two branches.

What experience and skills will you gain?

As a team member, you will assist the HCD Director and his team with the administrative duties required to support and maintain day-to-day program operations, including the administration, management, and logistics of government resources. This position will encompass both general/special projects for the Director as well as Human Resources support.
