EPA Office/Lab and Location: One to two research opportunities are available at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) in the Office of Water (OW), Office of Wetlands, Oceans and Watersheds (OWOW) Nonpoint source Program located in Washington D.C.

Research Project: EPA research project involving research and analysis focused on the successful use of Clean Water Act Section 319 nonpoint source funding for achieving water quality improvements, as well as researching state Nonpoint Source Management Plans and local scale watershed plans.

Learning Objectives: With guidance from the mentor the participant will have the opportunity to:

- evaluate water quality results in proposed nonpoint success stories from state agencies prior to publication
- evaluate implementation of best management practices and water quality monitoring for controlling nonpoint source pollution
- analyze effective approaches and measures in watershed planning to protect water quality

Mentor(s): The mentor for these opportunities is Cynthia Curtis (Curtis.cynthia@epa.gov). If you have questions about the
